2. Debrief Halftime Exhibit:

- Elizabeth was instrumental in the exhibit installation. Artists found that very helpful.
- Arts & Culture Commissioners work really well together. This contributed to the success of opening reception.
- Approximately 100 people in attendance. Great outcome
- A very diverse group in attendance- multicultural and intergenerational.
- The reception itself was successful in presenting various art forms such as dj, performing artist, drawing, photography, etc.
- Arlene's floor plan created a nice setting and ambiance for artwork.
- Good spread of food and beverages.
- Begin receptions earlier (6 pm)
- Find resources/donations for food and beverages so that cost does not fall on commissioners
- PR was great, but find more means for advertising. Perhaps the Serramonte Marquee.

3. Dave Ferrar Exhibit is still set for January, but commission will communicate with Joseph Curan to confirm dates and to see how we as a commission can support this artist for the opening reception.

4. Opportunity to collaborate with professor from San Francisco State in order to fundraise for Commission (will discuss at a later date, contact is Arlene)

5. Meeting adjourned
