1. General Announcements
 - a. Daly City Library will host a Poet Laureate for Filipinx History Month
2. Review of Latinx History Month Art Gallery Opening Reception on 9/26/19
 - a. The art was great and we loved the different art work that was showcased for Latinx History Month
 - b. Lots of people that came to the event especially the artists friends and family
 - c. Right amount of food and drinks.
 - d. Having no music was good and different. Allowed for more conversation
 - e. Great to have most of the council and staff present at the event
 - f. The singer was amazing! And allowed us to hear the sound and acoustic of city hall. Maybe we can get singers to come next time
3. I Heart Daly City Project (Nancy)
 - a. How can we connect with schools to do this? Who can take this on if some of us have to work during the day
 - b. Which schools are ideal for an art project. This is something that has been on the table since our meetings in 2017, who can take the lead and get it in motion?
 - c. What about the Lions Club art competition? (Dorie will follow up)
 - d. What about Jefferson elementary/ union? Do they have someone that does the art programs for the schools? Maybe we can connect with them on that level and see how we can do this project (Nancy will follow up)
 - e. What about going to a school and partnering with an art teacher and that can be their project for the semester similar to the Skyline College Project
 - f. We will all come back next meeting with updates
4. Update on Public Murals (Arlene)
 - a. Arlene will be in touch with Jessica Sabogal
 - b. Brainstormed locations and who is the art for
 - c. Homework for all commissioners is to take a picture of your ideal location for a mural and bring it to the meeting for us to discuss
5. Performing Arts Fundraiser (Arlene)
 - a. Dorie will follow up with TFC for a date during Women's History Month on March 13 and 14th
 - b. Arlene is in touch with Chasing Papeles and they are OK with the dates we just need to find a location.
6. Kasayahan Festival (Dorie)
 - a. Come out and support.
