COMMUNITY ECONOMIC PROFILE FOR DALY CITY

Fall 2010

LOCATION: Known as the “Gateway to the Peninsula”, Daly City is central to major growth areas of San Francisco and San Mateo counties and features excellent transportation infrastructure linking San Francisco’s financial district (eight miles north), the San Francisco International Airport (nine miles southeast and 15 minutes via BART) and Silicon Valley further south. Daly City is also directly linked to the East and South Bay Area. The Oakland International Airport is located 20 miles to the east.

Because of its central location, excellent transportation links and growing young and productive labor force, Daly City has become a regional hub for retail, healthcare and business development.

POPULATION: Daly City has experienced a significant increase in population over the last four decades, and, according to the California Dept. of Finance, has realized an increase of 1.2% growth in population over the past six years compared to 2.4% for the county. Population estimates as of 1/01/10 are 754,285 for San Mateo County and 108,383 for Daly City.

Daly City is the largest city in San Mateo County and, according to the Association of Bay Area Governments (ABAG), is expected to retain this position through at least 2035. During this time, ABAG estimates that Daly City will be the largest growth city in the county. Source: ABAG, Projections 2009.

ECONOMIC GROWTH & TRENDS:

As of 9/1/2010 taxable sales data has not been made available by the State Board of Equalization for Calendar Year 2009. Through 2007, however, Daly City was among the strongest in retail sales of all cities in the county with average annual growth 5.2% compared to a 3.9% for the county. Retail sales in Daly City have been negatively affected by closures of Mervyn’s and Circuit City during 2008-09, as well as declining sales for many other merchants. Nonetheless, during 2009-10, Daly City saw improvement in the retail sector. New restaurants (Tomo Sushi, Beach Burrito and Komei Buffet) opened at Pacific Plaza. The “Main Street” at Westlake Shopping Center is completely leased. Ross Stores has opened the formerly vacant Linens ‘n Things space and several smaller stores have opened in remaining vacant space. At Serramonte Center, new retailer, A’Gaci, opened a 20,000 s.f. store. International Retailer H&M will open by 2011.

Daly City has a competitive labor force with 78% of the City’s population over the age of eighteen, only 12% of the population retired and a median age of 35. (2000 Census)

EMPLOYMENT:

Mirroring national and local trends, Daly City's unemployment rate has increased from 5.9% at the end of 2008 to nearly 11.6% as of January 2010. The County unemployment rate increased from 4.7% to 9.7% during the same period. Source: CA EDD. We note that the USPS closed the International Mail Facility, with the loss of 600 jobs, in early 2010.

REAL ESTATE MARKET (FALL 2010):

During 2009, within the San Mateo County Office market (consisting of Class A stabilizing rents), Daly City's Class A Office market has had the strongest performance in the County—Pacific Plaza and 2171 Junipero Serra Class A office buildings over 95% occupied. Nonetheless, Daly City's full-service, Class A asking rents decreased modestly from $2.41 to $2.16 in the last year, compared to a nearly equal decrease countywide. During 2008-09, Daly City's retail market saw a modest increase in space available, reflecting closures of Mervyn's and Circuit City. The retail vacancy rate decreased as the Circuit City and other vacancies were filled.
