Measure Q

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Q: What is Measure Q?

A: In response to the feedback we've received from the community over the past several months, on July 27th, the Daly City Council unanimously placed Measure Q – The Daly City Local Recovery and Relief Measure on the November ballot for voter consideration. If enacted, the half-cent sales tax measure will provide locally controlled funding for public safety and essential City services.

Q: How does Measure Q address COVID-19/Emergency Preparedness?

A: Measure Q is an emergency measure to ensure the City is prepared for any medical or catastrophic emergency in the future. It will provide local, ongoing funding for maintaining our local paramedic, fire, 911 and police department services as well as updating emergency communication systems.

Q: What are the community identified spending priorities for Measure Q?

A: If enacted, Measure Q would address the following community identified priorities:

- ✓ Maintaining emergency life-saving equipment and apparatus
- ✓ Maintaining local fire protection
- ✓ Maintaining local paramedic services, staffing and capacity
- ✓ Maintaining the City's long-term financial stability
- ✓ Maintaining 911 emergency response
- ✓ Keeping streets and public areas healthy, clean and safe
- ✓ Maintaining services for our most vulnerable communities, including our local seniors

Q: What else is on the November 3rd Municipal ballot?

A: Daly City voters will have the opportunity to select two Councilmembers, the City Clerk and the City Treasurer.

Q: Has voting changed this year?

A: The November 3rd Election is also Daly City's Municipal Election and the first statewide all mail-in ballot election in California's history. Although voting by mail may be familiar to many voters, we will continue to keep you up to date on the changes to voting procedures and necessary information leading up to the election.

Q: Where can I get more information about Measure Q or the Municipal Election?
