PREFACE

"The purpose of history is to give value to the present hour and its duty."

—Ralph Waldo Emerson

This history was prepared for one major purpose: to make clear to the people who live in Daly City and Colma and the territory that surrounds them that they live in an area that has had an exciting past and is slated for an equally exciting future.

This book makes no pretense of being a complete history. It is designed, rather, to be a resource that may answer many of the questions that have been asked about the gateway cities.

A word of thanks goes to many people who have had a hand in this volume: to Arthur Bodien, Henry Sundermann, Edmund Cavagnaro, Maude Hanselman, Ethel Hahn, Edward Dennis, Frances Rickmann, Jean O'Rourke, Bernard Lycett, Anthony A. Giammona, Lillian Fletcher, Lanti Molloy, Lyal Ingersoll, Velma Yule and others who were members of a Daly City Historical Committee that dreamed that such a book was possible.

For assistance in the preparation of this volume, the writer takes real pleasure in acknowledging the valuable help of Margaret Sommer, Shelby Ross, Robert Kearney, Anne Dissing, Connie Shanabarger, Anna Ohlendorf, Betty Buckley, Betty Mazza, David Rowe, Raymond Letsinger, Donald Fleming, and to the members of the City Council of Daly City: Anthony A. Giammona, Victor G. Kyriakis, Paul M. Hupf, Bernard J. Lycett, and McRobert L. Stewart.
