

29TH ANNUAL SHOWCASE BASKETBALL LEAGUE

The Tradition Continues ...

Since 1984, players from different schools, cities, and backgrounds have played fun and competitive basketball together and against each other in a league that is unique and widely known throughout the Bay Area. No matter your basketball ability, a very strict participation rule means that everyone has plenty of opportunities to SHOWCASE their skills.

Jamboree/League:

The Jamboree is on Saturday, March 24, 2012 with the league tentatively starting the following week. Players receive their uniform, meet their coach and teammates, receive a schedule and league rules, and play a "mini-game" at the Jamboree. The league consists of seven regular-season games, playoffs and champion games for those that qualify, and All-Star games for those selected. The girls generally play Wednesday nights and the boys generally play Tuesday and/or Thursday.

Teams may play a game on a Saturday!

Players will receive specific information about the Jamboree in the mail by March 21, 2012.

Draft:

Teams are drafted evenly by knowledgeable volunteers, then league coaches will select their teams at random. A MAXIMUM of two players from any school will be placed on each team in the draft. Special requests may not be granted!

Awards:

Members of the 1st & 2nd place teams receive trophies. Additional awards will be given during the All-Star Game. This includes the MVP in each Division as well as the Daniel Gutierrez Memorial Sportsmanship Award in both Senior Divisions.
