On Sunday, 06-22-14 at 6:22 a.m., Officer Karen Douglas stopped a vehicle for an equipment violation near the Westlake Shopping Center. Officer Douglas smelled an odor of marijuana from the vehicle. When the officer questioned the driver if he had any additional marijuana in the vehicle, the driver said he had "some". A search of the vehicle revealed the 33-year old Daly City resident had more than "some", and he was arrested for possession of marijuana for sale and for possession of concentrated cannabis.

On Sunday, 06-22-14 at approximately 9:32 p.m., Officer Lee Aquila and Officer Rodney Chittenden were dispatched to the 400 block of Allan Street on a report of an attempted burglary in progress. A security guard saw on a surveillance camera a subject who was trying to break into a body shop by using bolt cutters to cut a lock. The reporting party said the subject then left the scene in a silver BMW. Officer Keith Mattos located the vehicle in the area, and the driver matched the description given by the reporting party. In searching the subject's vehicle, heroin, drug paraphernalia and burglary tools were found inside the vehicle. The subject, a 41-year old Oakland resident, was arrested for attempted burglary, possession of a controlled substance and drug paraphernalia and for possession of burglary tools.

On Monday, 06-23-14 at 4:12 p.m., Officer Lucas Taylor stopped a vehicle in the area of Callan Boulevard and King Drive. There were two occupants in the vehicle, and a records check revealed both parties had previous contact for drug violations. Officer Taylor asked the driver, a 43-year old Daly City resident, to step on the sidewalk to speak with him, and after the officer asked, the subject agreed to allow the officer to search him. No contraband was found. Officer Taylor asked the same of the passenger, a 32-year old Daly City resident, and she agreed. No contraband was found on her. Officer Taylor's K-9, "Odin", a certified narcotics detection dog, sniffed the vehicle, and he alerted the officer to a purse on the floorboard. The passenger advised it was her purse. Inside this purse were eight small baggies, one of which contained suspected methamphetamine, and a glass pipe used to smoke methamphetamine. The female sub was arrested for being in possession of a controlled substance and drug paraphernalia.

On Tuesday, 06-24-14 at 3:31 a.m., Officer Garrett Larsen was dispatched to the 1900 block of Junipero Serra Boulevard on a report of a stolen vehicle that had just occurred. Officer Ed Gregorio was responding to the theater when he passed by the van near Mission Street and Geneva Avenue. Officer Gregorio attempted to pull over the vehicle, and a pursuit ensued. The subject bailed out of the van, and a foot chase led to the ultimate apprehension by Officer Peter Skeehan. The subject, an 18-year old Daly City resident, was arrested for vehicle theft and possession of a stolen vehicle.

On Friday, 06-27-14 at 8:06 p.m., Officer Angelo Hamilton was on patrol in the Serramonte Shopping Center looking for vehicle burglars. Officer Hamilton saw a suspicious vehicle, and when he conducted a records check of the license plate, it revealed the registered owner had a $200,000 warrant for his arrest. The vehicle was leaving the lot, and the officer was behind the vehicle without his emergency lights or siren activated. The officer noticed the driver was driving erratically and dangerously around other vehicles, and as he tried to stop the vehicle, the officer saw that the driver nearly ran over two pedestrians. The driver of the vehicle continued to drive recklessly and attempted to exit the Target parking lot. Officer Kenneth Kim was able to assist in stopping the suspect vehicle. Witnesses had advised the officers that they saw a gun being thrown out of the vehicle. The subjects, both 21 from Antioch and San Pablo, were subsequently arrested for reckless driving, carrying a concealed firearm in a vehicle and carrying a loaded firearm/prior felon. Thanks to Officer Hamilton's keen eye, a gun not registered to anyone has been taken off the streets.
