Notable Cases

On Tuesday, 09-23-14 at 4:50 p.m., officers were dispatched to the area of Geneva Avenue and Carter Street in San Francisco to assist the San Francisco Police Department on a report of a hit and run collision that just occurred with the subjects fleeing on foot. The collision had actually occurred in Daly City, and the passenger in the vehicle was injured but fled the scene. The vehicle involved was stolen from San Francisco. Officers found a semi-automatic handgun in the center console, a cell phone and a small baggie of a white crystalline substance (presumed methamphetamine) under the driver's seat. The passenger who fled the vehicle was found a short distance away. The passenger, a 31-year old Redwood City resident, was arrested for an outstanding warrant and for being in possession of methamphetamine. The driver, a 29-year old San Francisco resident, was identified. He was subsequently arrested on 09-25-14 for vehicle theft, being a felon in possession of a firearm, hit and run, possession of a controlled substance, receiving stolen property and for a no-bail warrant.

On Tuesday, 09-23-14 at 6:20 p.m., Officer Lilian Tashiro and Officer Isaako Poti were dispatched to the 100 block of South Mayfair Avenue on a report of a female adult who was under the influence and in an agitated state. The reporting party said the female appeared to be drunk, was yelling obscenities and had walked across John Daly Boulevard to North Mayfair Avenue. The officers located her on the 200 block of North Mayfair Avenue and saw that she was stumbling. The female told the officers that she was drunk and wanted to go to her mother's house. The officers asked her if they could check her bag, and she allowed them to do so. Officers found a clear glass pipe (usually used to smoke methamphetamine) wrapped in an article of clothing. The female, a 20-year old Daly City resident, was arrested for providing false information to a police officer, being intoxicated in public, and for possession of unlawful narcotics paraphernalia.

On Tuesday, 09-23-14 at 9:25 p.m., Officer Rodney Chittenden and Officer Sean Begley were dispatched to the liquor store on Crocker Avenue on the report of an unwanted subject loitering outside the store. Officers arrived and found an intoxicated female who was having trouble maintaining her balance. The female admitted to drinking three beers and granted consent to be searched. She had a small baggie containing a white crystalline substance in her hand. Officers placed the 27-year old Daly City resident under arrest for possession of a controlled substance and for being drunk in public. As she was being transported to the jail by Officer Cameron Newton, she escaped from her handcuffs and threw them out the window of the patrol vehicle. As Officer Newton was re-securing the subject in the vehicle, he was spit on the face by the subject. The charges of battery on a police officer were added when they arrived at the jail.

On Wednesday, 09-24-14 at 1:45 p.m., Sergeant Michael Brennan stopped a vehicle with tinted windows at the intersection of Brunswick Avenue and Wellington Avenue. The driver, a 33-year old Concord resident, was arrested for failing to register as a sex registrant in his city of residence.
