When I mention “the unit block” of a street, this means the incident occurred at an address anywhere between 1 and 99 of the street.

Notable Cases

On Wednesday, 02-25-15 at approximately 5:59 a.m., a 65-year old Daly City resident was the victim of an auto/pedestrian traffic collision in the area of Mission Street and Citrus Avenue. The victim was unresponsive with trauma to her head and was transported to San Francisco General Hospital. The 32-year old driver was cooperative. The victim remains in the hospital.

On Wednesday, 02-25-15 at 4:08 p.m., Officer Bruce Perdomo and Officer Lucas Taylor were dispatched to a residence on the 600 block of Gellert Boulevard on a report of a disturbance. The reporting party said her boyfriend’s brother was being verbally aggressive and throwing items inside the home. The officers arrived to the home and were advised the brother who caused the disturbance had already left the residence. Dispatchers advised the officers that the brother who remained at home was on probation and was subject to search and seizure. Officers asked if they could conduct a search of the subject’s bedroom, and he consented but said he thought his probation had ended already. Officers found drug paraphernalia (a pipe and a scale) and baggies containing methamphetamine inside the subject’s dresser drawers. He was issued a citation for being in possession of methamphetamine and drug paraphernalia.

On Thursday, 02-26-15 at 1:30 p.m., Officer Ryan Hyink made a traffic stop on a vehicle for unsafe lane changes near the 3600 block of Junipero Serra Boulevard. Officer Hyink began speaking to the driver who became immediately argumentative. The officer advised the driver to stay in his vehicle, and the driver pushed on the door, opened it and exited the vehicle, against the officer’s direction to stay inside the vehicle. The driver, a 33-year old South San Francisco resident, was subsequently arrested for obstructing/delaying a peace officer, driving on the wrong side of the roadway, for being an unlicensed driver, and for having no proof of insurance.

On Friday, 02-27-15 at 2:50 p.m., Officer Dave Uziel stopped a vehicle in the area of Geneva Avenue and Allen Way for failing to use a hands free device. When the officer approached the vehicle, he could smell a distinct odor of burnt marijuana coming from within the vehicle. The driver was on court probation with a search and seizure clause. Two of other three occupants in the vehicle provided their identification verbally, and the officer was unable to identify the third subject. The third subject told the officer that he had to go a doctor's appointment in San Francisco, and the officer advised him that he would finish his investigation and to return to the vehicle soon. When Officer Brandon Scholes arrived as a cover officer, he assisted in searching the subjects for any contraband. Officers found a semi-automatic pistol under a jacket on the floor of the rear driver side area. Three of the subjects, all 22 year olds from Daly City, Richmond and San Francisco, were arrested for possession of a firearm, tampering with the serial number of a firearm, carrying a loaded firearm, owning prohibited ammunition, and for possession of a firearm in a vehicle. An additional charge of a parole violation was added to the subject from Daly City, and a charge of committing a felony while on bail was added to the subject from San Francisco.

On Saturday, 02-28-15 at 2:09 a.m., several officers were dispatched to the area of Mission Street and Evergreen Street on a report of a male subject lighting newspapers on fire and dropping them next to cars. Officers contacted the subject who admitted to lighting the newspapers on fire, but he said it was only to see if his lighter worked. He denied intentionally dropping any lit papers near cars. Officers searched the subject and found several credit cards and driver's licenses not belonging to him. The subject said he found them on the street. Officers issued a citation to the 39-year old San Francisco resident for possession of stolen property.

He said one subject, described only as a Hispanic male 18-25 years old, 5'7"-5'8" wearing a red sweatshirt, reached into his waist band and pulled out a small silver handgun and pointed it towards the ground. Scams/Other

One of our Daly City residents reported she received a voicemail last week from a person with a distinct Indian accent who said his name was “Steve Martin” and said he was calling regarding an enforcement action executed by the U.S.Treasury. The resident reported receiving a call a few weeks earlier and ignored it. In this recent voice mail message, “Steve Martin” said, “Ignoring this will be an intentional second attempt to avoid initial appearance before a magistrate judge....” and listed a phone number. Luckily our resident was not duped into this scam. Please be careful and spread the word that this is not how the U.S. Treasury operates.
