Officer Sprader made contact with the driver of a vehicle near the Target store. The driver admitted to having a suspended driver's license, as well as no insurance and said he was on probation. The passenger admitted to also having a suspended license and said she was living out of her vehicle. Other officers arrived to assist, and Officer Sprader found a pocket knife on the male and saw several more knives in the center console. Officer Garay searched the female, and she found two shaved keys in her possession. The female initially said she received the keys from work but later admitted that they just shaved them so that they could “break into cars”. When officers searched the vehicle, they found a scale and baggies containing suspected methamphetamine. The male, a 34-year old transient, and the 32-year old female were both arrested for possession of burglary tools, possession of a controlled substance for sale, possession with intent to use a master key, unauthorized use of another's identity, conspiracy and possession of controlled substance paraphernalia.

On Wednesday, 11-30-16 at 4:33 a.m., Officer Hamilton was dispatched to the Westlake Shopping Center on a report of a subject driving recklessly in the parking lot near Nation's. When Officer Hamilton and Officer Sunga arrived, they saw the vehicle parked with three subjects standing outside of it in the lot. One of the subjects spontaneously admitted to driving the vehicle and said he his father was getting ready to sell it, and he wanted to have fun with it before he sold it. Officer Hamilton could see visible fresh black skid marks on the asphalt and could smell fresh burnt rubber near the vehicle. Luckily the subject's vehicle did not collide with the numerous hazards and fixed objects in the parking lot. The officer cited the subject, a 19-year old San Francisco resident, for reckless driving.

On Wednesday, 11-30-16 at approximately 10:00 a.m., the San Mateo County Probation Department asked us to assist them on a search of a residence on the unit block of Werner Avenue of a subject on probation for possession of an assault weapon. During the search of the subject's bedroom, the probation officer found a handgun under the subject's mattress. The subject shares the bedroom with his girlfriend and their two small children. The officer contacted the subject and asked what he was doing. The subject said he was meeting a girl there and provided his identification, a medicinal marijuana card. The dispatchers advised the subject had a history of narcotics-related charges, and the officer asked the subject if he had anything illegal on him. The subject said he had some pills and admitted they were ecstasy pills. The subject handed the bag of pills to the officer, and the officer cited the 32-year old San Francisco resident for possession of a controlled substance. The officer learned later in his shift that the amount of pills the subject possessed is actually over the amount for personal use. A complaint will now be sought for a change in the offense.

On Saturday, 12-03-16 at 8:56 p.m., officers were dispatched to the Franciscan Mobile Home Park on a report of a domestic dispute. As Officer Ortega arrived on scene, he could hear loud yelling and banging coming from inside the residence. The female resident said her boyfriend of 10 years was upset because she received a letter from the mobile home park management about his living status. The two began to argue, but the female said it was never physical. When the officer was speaking with the male subject, he noticed the subject couldn't control the movement of his fingers and his speech was rapid. Believing the subject may be under the influence of a stimulant, the officer asked the subject if he would participate in field sobriety tests. The subject agreed, and after administering the tests, Officer Ortega determined that the subject was under the influence of a controlled substance. The subject admitted to using methamphetamine earlier that day. The subject, a 35-year old Daly City resident, was arrested for being under the influence of a controlled substance, possession of a controlled substance and possession of drug paraphernalia.

Scams/Other

Utility Worker Imposter

This didn't happen here, but it happened in our neighboring city, South San Francisco. On Friday, 12-01-16 at 2:32 p.m., a reporting party saw an unknown male subject, believed to be a PG&E employee, standing in front of his residence on Hillside Boulevard. The reporting party said a few minutes later, she saw the suspect on the side of his house next to the backdoor. The suspect was startled and immediately left the area. The victim saw the screen on his screen door was ripped, and the suspect had unlocked the screen door to try to get to the exterior door. The suspect was only described as a Hispanic male in his 30's wearing a yellow reflective vest and a white hard hat with a flap on the back. PG&E was contacted and said they had no employees in the area.

I don't want to create paranoia, but if you see someone who seems out of place (perhaps no work truck in sight), please just call us and we'll come out to take a look. Luckily the resident was home which scared away a potential burglar.

PG&E Scam

I have reported on this in the past, and unfortunately this happened again. A husband and wife reported they received a call from an unknown Spanish speaking subject who said he was "Fernando Fontana" and that their utilities would be shut off if they did not immediately pay $287.12 to PG&E. They were instructed to go to a Walgreen's and purchase a MoneyPak card, which they did, and they transferred the funds to the suspect. The victims reported the suspect tried again to get them to send more money, but they became suspicious and refused.

Nextdoor.com

Nextdoor.com is a free private social networking website for your neighborhood. This private network ensures that only those who live in your neighborhood can join; users must go through a verification process. Neighbors ask each other for business recommendations; help in locating missing pets; discuss relevant local government issues; or connect for other reasons. It is very easy to sign up, and I like the fact that the site verifies users by addresses, and it won't allow people to access to a neighborhood if they don't actually live there. Please note: the City of Daly City and/or the Police Department cannot see what residents post—we are only allowed to post information. There is also a mobile application, or you can have it sent to your email. Give it a try! www.nextdoor.com
