Notable Cases

On Monday, 05-04-20 at 3:02 p.m., Officer Reininger was dispatched to 2100 Junipero Serra Boulevard on a report of a possible assault and battery. The reporting party said his boss had just assaulted him and left towards the “south garage” on foot. Officer Reininger spoke with the 50-year old victim who was bleeding from his nose and face due to a laceration on the right side of his nose/orbital bone area, a large hematoma on his forehead, and swelling to his upper lip area. The victim said he was at work, and as he passed his boss, his arm brushed up against him. The victim said his boss turned towards him and pushed him with both hands, causing him to fall to the ground and into a desk. The victim said he stood up, and an argument ensued. The victim said he went to the phone and said he was going to call the police. He said the suspect then punched him in the face twice with a closed fist. Daly City Fire Department personnel evaluated the victim and transported him to the hospital. The suspect, a 49-year old Manteca resident, was not on the scene at the time. The officer made arrangements to speak with the suspect in person, but the suspect failed to come into the station to give his statement. A complaint will be sent to the District Attorney’s Office.

On Tuesday, 05-05-20 at 12:22 p.m., Officer Mulitaoupele and Officer Digiacomo were dispatched to an apartment at 500 King Drive on a report of a disturbance involving a mother who said her son assaulted her with an open hand. When the officers arrived, they saw the son outside the apartment and asked if there was a problem. The 16-year old son said it was a family problem, and he didn’t want to talk about it. The officers spoke with the 32-year old mother who said on the past Saturday, she noticed her son was not at home, and her car was gone. Later that evening, her son returned home with her car that was now heavily damaged and not drivable. The mother said she took her son’s cellphone away as punishment. The mother said on this day, her son came to her room asking to use her cellphone. The victim refused, and she said her son kept asking and said if she did not give him the phone, he would start breaking things—like he did with her car. The victim said she again refused, and her son knocked over her 55" flat screen television that landed on her 8-year old daughter. The victim said she pushed her son into the hallway, and her son pushed her to the floor and took her phone. The victim asked for the phone back, and her son threatened to hit her. The officers asked the victim if she wanted her son to be arrested, and she said yes. The son was arrested for robbery, grand theft and committing an adult offense by a juvenile and was transported to the San Mateo Youth Guidance Center. Both the victim and the 8-year old daughter did not suffer any physical injuries.
