The victim said as the bus was coming to a stop at Mission Street and Flournoy Street, he said the suspect approached him and sat very close to him, pressing something stiff into his hip area. The victim said the suspect said, "Give me everything you have, or I'll shoot you." The victim couldn't see a firearm but felt the subject was motioning as if he had one. The victim said he was patting his pockets to stall and look to see if the subject had a gun. The victim saw that the subject used his hand to simulate a gun, so he stood up. He said as he stood up, the suspect reached into his pocket and removed the victim's iPhone 6. The victim told the bus driver that the subject took his cell phone, and the suspect told the driver that the victim took his cell phone. The victim said they got off the bus, and the victim chased the suspect, demanding his phone back. The subject gave the victim back his phone and he asked him to not call the police.
