On Monday, 12-04-17 at 9:15 a.m., Officer Andrade was dispatched to the Burlington Coat Factory store on a report of a subject drinking in front of the store. The dispatchers gave a description of the subject, but the officer said the subject was not there. Officer Andrade started checking the Westlake Shopping Center parking lot and found a subject matching the description in the Safeway parking lot. The officer said the subject was holding two bottles of liquor, made eye contact with him and kept walking. The officer asked the subject if he could talk to him and asked him to put down the bottles. Officer Jackson arrived to assist and said that the subject was admonished in the past in regards to coming to the shopping center. The reporting party signed a citizen’s arrest form for trespassing, and Officer Andrade placed the 33-year old transient subject under arrest. During the drive to the jail, the officer said the subject was uncooperative, yelled, screamed and made threatening and derogatory remarks towards him. The owner wanted the subject dispersed from the property. Officer Cordellos responded to the scene and met with the business owner who said she could not enter her business due to the subject sleeping in front of the doors. The reporting party tried to wake up the woman, but she did not move. Officer Cordellos tried to wake up the subject and lifted the side of her jacket to ensure she was not concealing a weapon beneath it. When the officer did so, she said the subject flung her arm but did not open her eyes or say anything. The officer tried again to wake the subject up, and the subject again flung her arm. As the officer was waiting for Officer Perez to arrive, she said all of a sudden the subject jumped up from her sleeping position and walked towards her in an aggressive manner saying, "You will not keep telling me to move on from where I am." The officer said the subject pushed her hand, threatened her and threw a cup with an unknown liquid at her, causing some of it to hit her. They assisted the subject down the stairs and asked where he lived. The subject pointed to a truck in the driveway of the house next door, and the officers asked if it was his vehicle. The officers determined the vehicle was registered to that house and proceeded to assist the subject into his unlocked residence. Once the officers entered the residence, they were overwhelmed by the smell of marijuana and discovered numerous marijuana plants in the house. In addition, the subject had high capacity magazines for his Glock 17 hand gun. The 29-year old subject was arrested for public intoxication and for being in possession of high capacity magazines. Nextdoor.com

Nextdoor.com is a free private social networking website for your neighborhood. This private network ensures that only those who live in your neighborhood can join; users must go through a verification process. Neighbors ask each other for business recommendations; help in locating missing pets; discuss relevant local government issues; or connect for other reasons. It is very easy to sign up, and I like the fact that the site verifies users by addresses, and it won't allow people to access to a neighborhood if they don't actually live there. Please note: the City of Daly City and/or the Police Department cannot see what residents post—we are only allowed to post information. There is also a mobile application, or you can have it sent to your e-mail. Give it a try! www.nextdoor.com
