Notable Cases

On Tuesday, 11-01-16 at 7:42 p.m., Officer Shiu conducted a traffic stop on a vehicle at Gellert Boulevard near Serramonte Boulevard after seeing the vehicle drive through a red light. The driver apologized and said she thought she could “beat the light”. The driver told the officer she did not have a driver's license and showed the officer her California identification card. Dispatchers advised the driver had a suspended driver's license. After receiving that information, Officer Shiu asked the driver to step out of the vehicle. The officer asked the driver if there was anything illegal in the vehicle, and the driver said there was not. The officer searched the vehicle and found a medicine bottle containing individually packaged “twisties” in the subject's purse. Each “twisty” contained a white rock-like substance believed to be cocaine. The subject, a 34-year old San Francisco resident, said she “forgot” she had drugs in her purse. Officer Shiu continued to search the vehicle and found a stun gun in the glove compartment. The subject was arrested for possession of a controlled substance for sale, transportation of a controlled substance for sale, being a convicted felon in possession of a stun gun, and for driving with a suspended driver's license.

On Wednesday, 11-02-16 at 4:52 p.m., Officer Perez saw an occupied vehicle in a parking stall at Brandon Court and Martin Street. The front passenger door was open, and a subject was sitting in the front passenger seat. The officer asked the subject if he lived in the area, and the subject said he didn't and was waiting for a friend. The subject advised he was on probation, and the officer asked him if he had any illegal narcotics or weapons on him. The subject said he didn't and consented to being searched. Officer Hyink arrived to assist Officer Perez. The dispatchers advised the vehicle was stolen from San Francisco. The subject, a 32-year old transient, was arrested for vehicle theft and for possession of a stolen vehicle.

On Thursday, 11-03-16 at 2:28 p.m., Officer Fulmore conducted a traffic stop at 88th Street and Sullivan Avenue on a vehicle with expired registration. The driver initially gave a false name to the officer. When the officer asked the driver to step out of the vehicle, he saw a “blunt” on the driver's side floorboard. The officer asked the driver if there was anything illegal in the vehicle, and the driver said the only thing was the blunt and some marijuana in her purse. The driver consented to being searched and emptied her pockets. The officer noticed a bulge in the driver's bra, and the driver said she had money in there. The officer said it appeared she was attempting to conceal something. The officer asked the passenger to step out of the vehicle. The officer found a small amount of marijuana and a stun gun inside the driver's purse. The driver, a 36-year old San Francisco resident, was arrested for being a felon in possession of a stun gun, possession of drug paraphernalia, driving with an expired driver's license, providing false information to a peace officer and for possession of marijuana under 28 grams. The passenger, a 32-year old San Francisco resident, was issued a citation for possession of a controlled substance and possession of drug paraphernalia.

On Friday, 11-04-16 at 11:24 p.m., officers were dispatched to the Walgreen's at Westlake Shopping Center on a report of a subject causing a disturbance. The dispatchers gave a description of the subject and said the subject was fighting with security outside of the store. When officers arrived, the security officer said the subject brandished a knife and left the scene on foot. Officers found the subject at the Chevron gas station on John Daly Boulevard, and the subject ignored the officers request for the subject to stop. The subject, a 39-year old North Hollywood resident, was subsequently arrested for brandishing, being under the influence of a controlled substance, resisting arrest, providing false information to a peace officer, and for possession of narcotics paraphernalia.

On Saturday, 11-05-16 at 8:37 p.m., officers were dispatched to the Royal Palace Inn on the report of a possibly mentally ill female. Dispatchers advised that the female caller said she was being stalked by her ex-husband and was stuck at the hotel. She also claimed that there were 20 unknown vehicles following her, and that she suspected her ex-husband of hiring them. The reporting party told the dispatchers that she would be waiting for the officers in the manager's office. When officers arrived, they saw the female waving her hands frantically at them. A male who was with her quickly exited the office towards one of the hotel rooms. The female spoke with Officer Collins, and the officer said she appeared very fidgety, paranoid and exhibited signs of being under the influence of a stimulant. Because of this, the officer decided to talk to her friend who was initially with her but who went into a hotel room. When Officer Collins was speaking to the male, he noted that he also exhibited signs of being under the influence and appeared to be experiencing a bout of paranoia. The male, a 49-year old transient, was subsequently arrested for being in possession of a controlled substance for sales, being under the influence of a controlled substance, possession of unlawful paraphernalia, destroying/concealing evidence and for a probation violation. The female, a 44-year old Menlo Park resident, was arrested for being under the influence of a controlled substance.

Scams/Other

“Lottery Ticket” Scam

On Friday, 11-04-16, at approximately 3:51 p.m., hours, a 76-year old Daly City resident was the victim of a confidence scheme. The victim said she was at the Smart and Final store on Mission Street when she was approached by a female who asked her where a certain church was. The victim said another female came along and started talking to them. The first female said she just won the lottery. The victim didn't believe them, and the second female suspect told the first female suspect to call the phone number on the back of the lotto ticket and put the phone on speaker mode so the second suspect and the victim could hear the operator. The operator asked the first suspect to provide the number on the back of the ticket, and the first suspect complied. The operator told the suspect she just won $1 million dollars but she would have to deposit $90,000 in cash. The suspects convinced the victim that she could receive a huge portion of the lottery money by splitting the deposit with them. The victim agreed and said she drove the second suspect to get her part of the deposit first and then drove to one bank to withdraw half of the deposit and then drove to the Wells Fargo Bank at Serramonte Shopping Center to get a loan for the other half of the cash. After getting the cash, the victim said the first suspect asked her to go back into the bank to grab her W-2 forms, and the victim agreed. The victim said she trusted the two suspects and left the $45,000 in her vehicle. When the victim returned, the two suspects and the money were gone. The victim said the entire conversation between the subjects was in Spanish, and stated both suspects were from Ecuador. The first suspect is described as a Hispanic female approximately 5'5", 180 lbs., black medium length hair, black shirt and black pants. The second suspect is described as a Hispanic female, approximately 5'2", 140 lbs., brown hair, wearing a white shirt and blue jeans. The suspects may have left in a black BMW SUV.

HICAP (Health Insurance Counseling and Advocacy Program) presentation- Tuesday, 11-22-16

Medicare Open Enrollment Period - Oct. 15 through Dec. 7 - is when Medicare rolls out new Part C and Part D plans for the following year. At this time beneficiaries may shop around and switch plans to save money, get a better deal on prescriptions or find a plan that's ideal for their current needs.

Serramonte Library is hosting a presentation focused on the period by nonprofit HICAP (Health Insurance Counseling and Advocacy Program) of San Mateo County.

State-registered HICAP counselor/community educator Diane Caradeuc will explain the importance of the period and how HICAP can help beneficiaries save. The presentation will take place at Tuesday, November 22 from 6:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.

HICAP provides free, unbiased and confidential counseling at 28 sites throughout the county. The nationwide program does not sell or recommend insurance plans. Funded by the state and federal governments, its mission is to help Medicare beneficiaries make informed decisions.

For more information, call HICAP of San Mateo County (650) 627-9350.

The “Daly Wire,” the City’s Monthly Electronic Newsletter

In an effort to expand the City’s communications efforts, the City of Daly City has launched a monthly electronic newsletter - the “Daly Wire.” Each issue will feature a range of important topics including events, exploring services and programs, highlighting projects, and providing helpful tips and news. Don’t miss out on all that’s happening in Daly City – please subscribe by visiting www.dalycity.org/dalywire

Nextdoor.com

This is a free private social network for you, your neighbors and your community which allows you to talk to your neighbors on line. This, in turn, People use Nextdoor for many reasons: to quickly get the word out about crimes in the area, organize a Neighborhood Watch Group, track down a trustworthy babysitter, find referrals for businesses, looking for lost pets, finding new homes for unwanted items (furniture, bicycles, etc.), and many other reasons. It is very easy to sign up, and I like the fact that the site verifies users by addresses, and it won’t allow people to access to a neighborhood if they don’t actually live there. There is a mobile application, or you can have it sent to your email. Give it a try! www.nextdoor.com
