Notable Cases

On Tuesday, 09-08-20 at 6:51 p.m., Officer Smith was dispatched to the police station to take a report of an assault with a deadly weapon that occurred the prior day. Due to a language barrier, the victim’s daughter translated for him. The victim, a 75-year old San Francisco resident, said the day prior, took a chartered bus to Graton Casino. He said a male on the bus started making threatening comments to him, saying he was going to kill him. The victim was familiar with the subject, as they used to be friends. The victim told the subject to leave him alone. They both got off the bus at the casino and had no contact. Later, both men got back on the chartered bus to return home. The victim said at about 5:20 p.m., he got off the bus at Mission Street/Evergreen Avenue to catch a connecting bus home. The victim said the subject again began yelling at him and threatening him. The victim said he was trying to leave, but the suspect kept following him. The victim said the suspect was holding a screwdriver and began attempting to stab him with it. The victim said the subject got close enough to make contact and attempted to stab him in the eyes. The victim raised his hands to guard his face, and he said the screwdriver hit his hand, causing a puncture, followed by bleeding. The victim was able to get on to the 14 Mission MUNI bus, and the driver did not let the suspect onto the bus, as he had just seen the crime occur. The victim took the bus to his residence in the City and took an ambulance to the hospital. The victim did not report the crime at the time, as he did not speak English. The victim said the suspect lives about three blocks from him, and whenever he sees him, the victim said the suspect threatens to kill him. The victim was able to obtain an Emergency Protective Order against the suspect, an 82-year old San Francisco resident. This case is still under investigation.

The security guard said the male physically bumped her and picked up his bag and proceeded to exit the store. The Assistant Manager joined the security guard and approached the subject. At that point, the subject reached into his pocket, displayed a knife to them and walked out of the store. Officer Gill was on the 200 block of Miriam Street and found a male matching the description of the subject. The two parties positively identified the subject, and Officer Hightower placed the subject, a 31-year old Mill Valley resident, under arrest for robbery and concealing a dirk or dagger.

About 10 minutes later, Officer Perez responded to the area to investigate the attempted vehicle burglary by the same suspect involved in the robbery. The victim of the auto burglary said she was being driven by her husband when she saw the suspect standing next to her car, and it appeared she was tampering with the vehicle door.
