Notable Cases

On Tuesday, 04-02-19 at 2:28 p.m., officers were dispatched to the parking lot of JC Penney’s on a report of two subjects looking into parked vehicles. One of the suspects was reported to be carrying a bag containing tools. Officer Herrera arrived and contacted the subjects matching the description who were standing by a vehicle. While waiting for cover officers to arrive, Officer Herrera saw bags next to the vehicle. These bags were deemed to be property stolen from four vehicles in the parking lot. The two subjects, an 18-year old female from Oakley and a 19-year old male from Antioch, were arrested for four counts of vehicle burglary, four counts of possession of stolen property, and four counts of conspiracy to commit a crime.

On Wednesday, 04-03-19 at 8:17 p.m., following a traffic enforcement stop in the Serramonte Shopping Center parking lot, Officer Covarrubias arrested three female subjects (18 and two 19-year old San Francisco residents) for organized retail theft, grand theft, and for possession of burglary tools. The three female subjects were positively identified as suspects to a theft that occurred at the Sephora store approximately 30 minutes prior. The subjects were also found to be in possession of multiple items of stolen merchandise from several stores inside the shopping center.

On Wednesday, 04-03-19 at 11:10 p.m., Officer McCarthy and Officer Moody were on patrol in the area of Crocker Avenue and Irvington Street and contacted a subject sitting in a vehicle that was blocking the driveway on the 300 block of Irvington Street. As the officers approached the subject in the vehicle, they saw the subject quickly place something in his pocket and quickly close his door. The officers asked the subject if had anything illegal on him, and the subject said he did not. The officers noticed the subject was extremely nervous, sweating and swaying from side to side. When the officers started patting down the subject, they said he became more nervous. The officers found narcotics on the subject’s person, as well as a Smith & Wesson ten round magazine under the subject’s shirt, and a Smith & Wesson handgun under his shirt on the other side of him. The officers arrested the subject, a 52-year old San Francisco resident, for being in possession of a controlled substance while armed, carrying a concealed firearm in a vehicle, carrying a concealed firearm on his person and for being in possession of a controlled substance.

On Sunday, 04-07-19 at 9:41 p.m., Officer Collins was dispatched to the unit block of Northgate Court on a welfare check of a subject who called 911 but wouldn't answer the dispatcher's questions. The dispatcher advised the officer that it sounded like the subject was on foot as he was calling. The subject ran into the kitchen of the Original Joe's of Westlake and appeared scared and paranoid. A restaurant employee believed the subject may have been under the influence of a drug as he was not acting normally. Other officers responded to the restaurant and tried to get the subject to leave, and the subject became combative. The subject, a 39-year old Daly City resident, was arrested for being under the influence of a controlled substance and for resisting/obstructing a peace officer.

Robberies

There were no robberies and two attempted robberies during the past week.

On Tuesday, 04-02-19 at 8:13 p.m., a 20-year old Daly City resident reported he was the victim of an attempted robbery by three juvenile suspects who struck him with their fists in an attempt to steal the cell phone he had in his hand. The victim said he was walking on the 400 block of Winchester Street when he saw a subject standing in front of him on the sidewalk. The victim said the subject called him a name and told him to give him his phone. The victim said he turned to run away, but he saw two other subjects standing behind him. The victim said suddenly the first subject hit him the face, causing him to fall against a parked vehicle. The victim said the other two suspects struck him and attempted to take the phone from his hands. The victim said he fell to the concrete and attempted to protect himself and maintain control of his phone. The victim yelled, and he said after approximately 10-20 seconds, all suspects fled westbound on Winchester Street towards Crocker Avenue. The victim described all three subjects as Filipino or other Asian males, 10-15 years old, all 5'3", 100 lbs. The victim suffered a cut lip and abrasions to his hands.

On Friday, 04-05-19 at 9:10 p.m., officers were dispatched to the 100 block of Hillcrest Drive on a report of a robbery with a gun that occurred ten minutes prior to the victim's call. The victim, a 43-year old pizza delivery driver from San Francisco, said he delivered an order to a customer, and after he dropped off the order, he got into his vehicle. The victim said a suspect approached his window which was rolled down a few inches. The victim said the suspect was holding a small dark-colored handgun and pointed it at him, telling him to give him his wallet and to step out of the car. The victim said a second suspect opened the front passenger door and sat in the vehicle for a couple of seconds and told the victim to get out of the car. The victim said the second suspect exited the car, and the victim accelerated away east on Hillcrest Drive. The victim described the first suspect as a Hispanic male, approximately 25-30 years old, 5'9", wearing a black beanie and dark colored hoodie. The victim described the second suspect as a Hispanic male, approximately 25-30- years old, 5'9", goatee, and wearing a black beanie, black hoodie and dark blue jeans.

Residential Burglaries

There were two residential burglaries during the past week.

On Tuesday, 04-02-19 at approximately 10:23 p.m., a 33-year old San Francisco resident entered an "Air bnb" residence on the 100 block of Hillcrest Drive and went into two rented rooms. The suspect was still on the premises and was arrested for residential burglary. A charge of bringing a controlled substance to jail was also added once the booking deputy saw a baggie of suspected methamphetamine fall out of the suspect's pants.

On Wednesday, 04-03-19 at 11:52 a.m., officers were dispatched to a residence on the 300 block of Ardendale Street on a report of an audible residential burglary alarm sounding. The suspects pried the front gate and the front door to enter the residence. The officers initially found the alarm control panel missing from the wall, and located it in the toilet bowl, immersed in water. The suspects ransacked the bedrooms and took $4,000 from a nightstand drawer. This investigation is continuing.

Commercial Burglaries

There were three commercial burglaries during the past week.

On Monday, 04-01-19 between 6:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m., an unknown suspect broke the lock off of a locker in the women's locker room at the 24-Hour Fitness facility and stole a Prada purse containing cash, driver's license, credit cards, a diamond ring, gold bracelet, gold necklace, keys and clothing. Some clothing was recovered in the locker room. This investigation is continuing.

On Friday, 04-05-19 at approximately 8:35 p.m., two unknown subjects entered the AT&T store and stole two iPad Pros and an iPhone X and fled the store. This investigation is continuing. Below is a photo of both subjects. One subject is wearing hospital scrubs. If you can identify either subject, please call us! The case # is 19002507, and our phone number is (650) 991-8119.

Nextdoor.com

Nextdoor.com is a free private social networking website for your neighborhood. This private network ensures that only those who live in your neighborhood can join; users must go through a verification process. Neighbors ask each other for business recommendations; help in locating missing pets; discuss relevant local government issues; or connect for other reasons. It is very easy to sign up. I like the fact that the site verifies users by addresses, and it won't allow people to access to a neighborhood if they don't live there. Please note: The City of Daly City and/or the Police Department cannot see what residents post—we are only allowed to post information. There is also a mobile application, or you can have it sent to your e-mail. Give it a try! www.nextdoor.com
