Notable Cases

On Monday, 06-28-21 at approximately 11:20 a.m., multiple officers were dispatched to a residence on the 900 block of Wyandotte Avenue on a report of a residential burglary. The 97-year old reporting party/victim said she was in her bedroom on the ground floor when she said her bedroom door burst open and two male subjects (unknown race between 30-40 years old) entered her bedroom. The victim said she struck one suspect several times, but he pushed her once, and she landed on her bed. The victim told the suspects that she didn't have any valuable items, but both suspects opened drawers to her dresser and cabinets. The victim said the suspects didn't say anything to her and used gestures to communicate. The victim said she saw the second subject holding something “black and bulky” in his hand, but she could not recall if the object was a firearm. The victim said she remained downstairs as the suspects walked upstairs and ransacked bedrooms. The victim did not observe the suspects leave through the ground floor and believed they left through the front door. The suspects pried the front door to gain initial entry into the residence. Since the 27-year old subject was on probation, the officers conducted a probation search and found a small plastic baggie containing a gray powdery substance (fentanyl) and a glass bulb pipe with white and black residue in the subject's pockets. Officer Directo issued a citation to the suspect to appear for the possession of fentanyl and drug paraphernalia.

The victim's male friend said, "Hey man, we're walking here", and the vehicle circled back around and pulled up in front of him. The driver had his window down and brandished a black handgun at them and made threatening remarks to them. The victims described the driver as a black male with short black hair and a beard, and they described the passenger as a black female with light complexion and long curly black hair. The vehicle left the scene, and this investigation is continuing.
