Daly City - Department of Recreation Services

Info

The Daly City Youth Basketball League is a recreation league encompassing a positive environment, low-key competition, an emphasis on learning and development, focusing on good sportsmanship and having fun!

Players will be placed with schoolmates and/or with other participants to form teams, lead by volunteer coaches.

Practices will be once a week. Games will be played on Saturdays. Coaches and/or staff will contact parents prior to league start.

League play will begin the second week of January and end in March!
